

Erik's Place was founded in 1970 and is located in historic Broken Arrow. Erik showcases his talent for selecting games with a hand-picked collection of games from around the world. There is enough variation in the selections to provide entertainment for even the most discriminating taste.

Enjoy your visit, and thank you for visiting Erik's Place.

*We accept all major credit cards.
No personal checks, please.*

Erik's Place

Where friends gather for fun and fellowship

Specializing in games you've never heard of.

Erik's Place

erik@erikdewey.com

<http://www.erikdewey.com>

Game Menu

Ca$h 'n Gun$

Ever wanted to pull a gun on your friends? You have just finished robbing a bank and now it is time to divide the funds, but why should you do it evenly? After all, you have guns...

3-9
players      1/2
hour

Battlestar Galactica

Try to save your spaceship from the attacking Cylons. You all work together as a team, but not everyone can be trusted.

3-6
players      2-4
hours

Formula De

Hear the screech of tires and the whine of a high performance engine as you race your cars around the track. Be sure to slow down for the corners.

2-10
players      1
hour

Bootleggers

Running a mob during prohibition isn't easy. There are bribes to pay, whiskey to make and deliver, and the other gangs to deal with. Still, you didn't get where you are by avoiding a challenge.

3-6
players      2
hours

Citadels

Choose your profession each turn and try to build the most luxurious area in the Citadel. Beware the thief and assassin.

2-7
players      1
hour

Manhattan

Don't let the pastel buildings fool you, this game can quickly become very cutthroat. Try to score the most points by controlling the most areas of Manhattan.

2-4
players      1
hour

Light/Party Games

Quick playing and fun, these games are the perfect choice if you are looking for lighter fare.

Wits & Wagers

A fun trivia game where getting the correct answer is not as important as how you bet.

3-7
players      1 hour

Jungle Speed

Fast reflexes and good eyes are needed in this game. When you see a match, be the first to grab the totem.

3-8
players      1/2 hour

For Sale

In this bidding game, you are purchasing real estate and hopefully selling it for the most money.

2-5
players      1/2 hour

Cineplexity

Can you be the first to name a movie that meets all the criteria the Director drew?

4-10
players      1 hour

What's it to Ya?

Everyone ranks five things and tries to match either their partner or each other. Which is more important, feelings or air conditioning?

3-6
players      1/2 hour

Double or Nothing

A press-your-luck type game. On your turn, you can take the sure thing or try to get the big score.

3-6
players      1/2 hour

Incan Gold

As you explore an Incan pyramid you find both treasure and danger. Will you dare to delve deeper into the site than your fellow explorers?

3-8
players      1/2 hour

Hey! That's my Fish!

Penguins on a melting ice flow compete to get the most fish. As the ice melts, the penguins' options decrease.

2-4
players      1/2 hour

---

Cooperative/Team Games

Do you wish to play with someone rather than against them? These games allow for teams or total cooperative play.

Pandemic

Four diseases are ravaging the world and your team of scientists is the only one who can save it. Cure the four diseases before they take over the world.

1-4
players

1/2 hour

A Touch of Evil

There is an evil in the Victorian village and the heroes are racing to see which of them can put a stop to it first. Is it the Vampire, the Werewolf, the Scarecrow, or the Headless Horseman?

2-5
players

1 1/2
hours

Last Night on Earth

The zombies have risen, can they be stopped? 1-2 players control the zombies while the rest are the stalwart heroes. Act quickly; this could be their Last Night on Earth.

2-6
players

1 1/2
hours

Betrayal at the House on the Hill

There was always something strange about that old house on the hill. As you and your friends explore it suddenly one of them turns traitor and the true evil in the house is unleashed. Can it be stopped?

2-5
players

1 1/2
hours

Scotland Yard

Mr. X is on the loose and only Scotland Yard can find him. Through clever maneuvering and deduction, the detectives hope to close in on Mr. X and send him to jail. Mr. X, of course, just wants to escape.

2 – 6
players

1 1/2
hours

Medium Weight Games

Just the ticket for when you want deeper strategy and a more filling experience.

The Settlers of Catan

The classic game of building and trading. Be the first to score ten points by expanding your settlements on the island of Catan.

3-4
players

1 1/2
hours

Samurai

Players compete in influencing the church, agricultural, and political leaders in ancient Japan. Don't focus too heavily on just one group or you won't win.

2-4
players

1 1/2
hours

Kingsburg

The King has given you control over part of the kingdom. Compete with others to influence members of the King's court for the resources you need to have the best region.

2-5
players

1 1/2
hours

Agricola

The biggest boardgame hit of last year. You are a medieval farmer trying to make the most productive farm. Be sure to keep your family fed and still expand your farm. An amazingly fun game.

2-5
players

1 1/2
hours

Imperial

You know the secret of this pre-WWI world. The men who hold the purse strings control the world. Invest in countries and guide their destiny as you work hard to increase your personal wealth.

2-6
players

2 hours

Cleopatra and the Society of Architects

Cleopatra has demanded a temple and you and the other architects are going to build it. Do you use shady practices to get ahead of the others? Beware; the most corrupt of you will be fed to her pet crocodile.

3-5
players

2 hours

